

MODEL PLANE ENTHUSIASTS—Grant Beaver, Halifax, Steve Mosher, Truro, were among the approximately 90 enthusiasts from all over the Maritimes attending the radio-controlled aircraft gathering in Kentville on March 27. Beaver displayed his balsa and plywood Ultimate biplane, while Mosher brought his 30 per cent model of an Extra 230 monoplane. The Wings of Wellington Radio-Controlled Aircraft Club hosted the event, which included speakers, workshops and displays. (Fox)

APRIL 2 / 1993